ANNEXATION SUIT Arguments Start

Court Grants Limited Time to All the Interested Parties in the Case.

AUTOMOBILES IN WRECK

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 12.—Final arguments in the annexation suit instituted by the city, the object of which is to attain a part of Alexandria and Fairfax

Counties were begun in the Circuit Court for Alexandria County to-day before

Judge Bennett J. Gordon, of Nelson

County, who is presiding. It was 5:30 o'clock this afternoon when court adjourning and the arguments will be resumed in the morning, and in all probability will be concluded late to-morrow. In the latter event it is expected that Judge Gordon will announce his decision in the case.

The opening arguments on behalf of the city were made by Attorney John M.

Johnson. He was followed by Attorney

R. Lynch Montague, representing Alexandria County. Arguments on behalf of Fairfax County were then made by Attorney Thomas R. Keith, of Fairfax, and the last argument before adjournment was made by C. Vernon Ford, and he will be followed by Commonwealth's Attorney Capt. Crandal Mackey, on behalf of Alexandria County. The principal address for Alexandria County will then be made by Andrew Jackson Montague, former Governor of Virginia, and the concluding argument in the case will be made by Attorney Samuel G. Brent on behalf of this city.

The time allowed for arguments was divided by the court as follows: Fairfax

County, three hours; Alexandria County, four hours; and this city five hours.

The city has one hour and thirty minutes for its closing argument in the case.

Attorney John S. Barbour, one of the attorneys representing Fairfax County, was unable to be present and argue the case owing to illness.

Masons Coming To-morrow.

About 125 members of William L. Ekins

Lodge of Masons, of Philadelphia, at 12:30 o'clock to-morrow evening will pay a social visit to Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons. The visitors will be met in Washington at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow by E. H. Kemper, worshipful master of the local lodge. They will pay a visit to President Taft, and afterward enter the offices of the local lodge, at a luncheon in Washington.

Accompanying the Masons will be their famous choir. Members of Andrew Johnson Lodge have been invited to attend the reception, which will be tendered at the Philadelphia. During the evening a luncheon will be served.

Twenty-five hundred packages of apple jelly which was seized by government pure food inspectors, who followed the shipment, it is claimed, from New York, will be released to-morrow by A. C.

Worth & Co., of New York, who gave a bond of $50 to the government that the shipment was for sale in any form of food or for repacked for purposes of sale for food.

The check operator who put in his appearance here yesterday victimized three instead of two merchants. It was learned today. The third victim was the firm of E. S. Lealwater & Son, wholesale druggists, where he obtained $25 in cash. The stranger purchased a bill of goods, consisting of paint and oil, to the extent of $25 and presenting the check for $25, obtained the $25 check.

The special committee of the city school board and the committee on schools and finance of city council will hold a meeting Tuesday night next at 8 o'clock for the purpose of considering the proposition of financing the erection of a new high school building at an estimated cost of $40,000.

In the Circuit Court for this city to-day in the case of John Harris against Gertrude Level and others, a decree was entered confirming the report of Louis N.

Duffy, special commissioner, and directing the sale of property. H. Noel Garner was appointed commissioner of sale.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13-3 p. m.

There will be rain Thursday in the Lower Lake region, the Middle Atlantic States, and New England, with lower temperatures, high winds, and some snow in the northern districts, followed by generally fair weather Friday, except in Northwestern New England, where local snows are probable. Over the remainder of the country the weather will be mainly fair Thursday and Friday, except in the North Pacific States and the extreme

Northwest, where local rains are probable.
